

RIGHT STUFF EQUIPMENT

AER SATELLITE TRAY FORMING MACHINES

Right Stuff Equipment manufactures an entire line of tray formers, tooling sets, and stocks a full complement of parts. Full service and support are provided by our customer service and in-house engineering teams. The Cam-driven design means the machines are quiet, reliable, and require low maintenance. There are no pneumatics to maintain or replace. The result is the highest level of Operational Equipment Efficiency (OEE) and Total Cost of Ownership (TCO).
